

Integrated Consent Form for CaYPT 2020

Italicized fields are omitted for jurors

Photography Statement

In addition to photography, the Canadian Young Physicists' Tournament will be live streaming the event such that participants from various provinces may compete together. The videos will later be posted for both archival and promotional purposes. The following form gives the CaYPT and its associates permission to record and publish audio and video of the subject. This consent can be revoked at any time at a later date.

Liability Statement

The Canadian Young Physicists' Tournament and all associated with the event are not responsible for any incidents involving damage or theft of personal property, nor of personal injury. The participants are responsible for their own safety, transportation and belongings before, during, and after the tournament is held.

The following assures that the subject acknowledges the above, and will not dispute it.

Rules and Regulations Statement

I understands that:

- 1. the registration fee ($300 CAD per team) is non-refundable, unless the competition is cancelled for any reason.*
- 2. the team is responsible for travel costs, if not, a reliable internet connection for the online teleconference participation.*
- 3. each member of the team under the age of 18 has a parent's/guardian's consent to participate in the CaYPT..*
- 4. once the registration form is submitted, team members can not be altered.*
- 5. there could be a maximum of 5 students representing each team throughout the entire tournament.*

I will comply to the CaYPT Rules and Regulation (newest version), the CaYPT Teleconference Guideline (newest version) and understand that the CaYPT Committee reserve the right of final explanations.

Signatures

I confirm that all the information entered in this form is accurate to the best of my knowledge and I will inform STEM Fellowship if there are any changes to the information provided. Clicking "Submit and Accept Terms" will constitute as your signature and your parent or guardian's signature if under 18 years old.
